“Pi Xi Founders’ Memorial Scholarship”

Knowing the importance of the intellectual in all matters pertaining to the advancement of humankind, the Founders of Omega Psi Phi made scholarship the foremost of the fraternity’s four cardinal principles.

Scholarship is no side issue. It is an integral and deep-rooted tradition of the organization. Every member, chapter, and district of the fraternity is dedicated to scholarship. The purpose of founding and awarding the “Pi Xi Founders’ Memorial Scholarship” is to commemorate the founding of the Pi Xi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated by Brothers John A. Godet, Cornel D.V. Mortimer, Paul Clare, Peter L. Mitchell, Granville C. Bain, Cleveland Eneas, Jr., Gregory Austin, Lowell J. Mortimer, Lester J. Mortimer, Jr., Philip J. Mortimer and Derek G. Bastian.

Our aim through implementing the “Pi Xi Founders’ Memorial Scholarship” is to give national/international recognition and stimulation to the scholarship needs of the fraternity through the following goals:

1. To induce an increased awareness of the supreme importance of the intellectual.
2. To stimulate greater activity at the chapter, district, national, and international level.
3. To stimulate greater activity with regard to scholarship aid awarded by our chapter and district.
4. To work toward stimulation of scholarly aims among our brotherhood.

Eligibility Requirements:

The scholarship is designated for a Bahamian undergraduate or graduate brother of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Incorporated who meets the eligibility requirements.

Eligibility for this scholarship consists of a broad criterion. These criteria consist of (but are not limited to): grade point average, major, proven community service, campus involvement, extracurricular activities, proven support provided to Pi Xi Chapter and financial need.
